

HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

One of my spies delivered her daughter to the University of Arizona at Tucson over the weekend. She reported that San Diego's back-country seemed as hot as the desert when she returned Sunday, and Point Loma loomed up as a haven from the heat.

Yeah, and it was pretty warm here Sunday and Monday. The beach really got a play, with swarms of kids celebrating the last days of summer vacation.

My local spy, probing the situation at Yavapai Hall, a freshmen girls' dormitory at U. of A. reported that one girl arrived there with 70 dresses, no less.

She was from Texas, naturally. There must be hundreds of California students at Arizona, including quite a delegation from Point Loma High and other high schools in San Diego.

Art Luppino, the La Jolla High flash who has been the nation's top ball-carrier in football for two years, is set for another big season with the Wildcats.

One of my women readers advises me that women don't care to read about football and suggests that I lay off the subject this fall.

Well, I've observed no dearth of women at football games, and some of them seem to get more excited than the men. This ain't a sassy column, anyhow. If 10,000 women wrote letters urging me to lay off football, I'd still write about it.

Why? 'Cause men like it, Gwendolyn.

I'll enjoy watching Doug Stephenson play end for Point Loma High this season. His father, Dr. Eugene Stephenson, was a star end at State College during the 1920's; in fact, Steve and I were ends on the same team.

Ends have more fun than anybody.

That ends that.

See where a gal named Ruth

Ruth got married the other day. Which reminds me that Mickey Mantle now seems destined to fail in his attempt to equal or surpass Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs in a season.

That's fine with me. I have a nostalgic fondness for the 1920's, when Babe Ruth, Red Grange, Ernie Nevers, Bronko Nagurski, et al, were making sports headlines.

The Bronx has a son at Notre Dame this year, incidentally.

Leaping lightly from horse-limbs to frankincense and myrrh, I had a discussion the other day with a guy who writes poetry.

I tried to sympathize with his desire to pour out his troubled soul in stream of consciousness stuff, but was impatient with his desire to make a career of it.

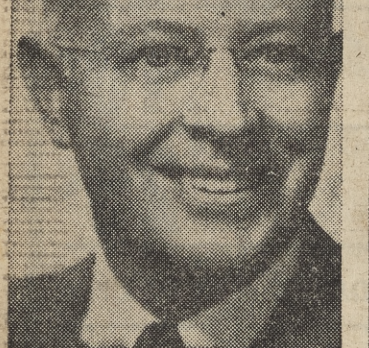

What I told him was this: "There ain't no money in poetry. Nobody makes a living at it."

Don Marquis put it this way: "Publishing a volume of verse is like dropping a rose petal down the Grand Canyon and waiting for the echo."

Telephone Co. Promotes Pt. Lomans

Pacific Telephone has announced the promotion of two Point Lomans to division level posts in the company effective Oct. 1, Robert L. Black, division manager, said today.

Richard Taylor, 928 Moana Dr., and Gordon Hough, 3022 Lytton, will take their new positions in a new division area created by a split of the San Diego based southern division of the Pacific Company.

Taylor has been named division commercial manager and will head up the business office and customer contact personnel for Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties. He had been transferred to this area last year from Santa Ana and has held the position of division commercial superintendent locally.

Hough, east district manager for San Diego and Imperial Counties, will assume responsibility for all operator forces and toll operations as the division traffic manager.

Black said that John Doolittle, also of San Diego, will be the new division's plant manager.

The split in the locally operated southern division came about as a result of the growth in the area, which has gained nearly a quarter of a million telephone stations in the four and one-half years since a headquarters was established here, he said.

The San Diego and Imperial County areas will be known as the San Diego Division after the Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties division is formed. Les Scott and William Elliott will continue locally as the division traffic and plant managers.

The new division men will make their headquarters in the City of Orange.

Point Loma High To Play SDHS In Football Carnival

The 18th annual edition of the San Diego City Schools' football carnival, a gala evening of football, pageantry and music, will be presented Friday, Sept. 21, at 7:30 p.m. in Balboa Stadium.

Carnival Manager Don Clarkson said that this year's event, in which approximately 1700 students from seven senior high schools will participate, will open with a pageant dedicated to the theme of "Vacationland." The traditional football game will follow the pageant.

The pageant will feature bands, drill teams, drum corps, and flag and pom-pom corps, each attired in colorful uniforms. The script, depicting San Diego's varied attractions as a vacation resort, has been prepared by Miriam Paine, assistant supervisor of physical education, and Dr. Alex Zimmerman, City Schools' director of music.

The football game, starting at 8:20 p.m., will consist of four quarters of play. Each school will play in one quarter, with the exception of Lincoln High which will take part in two. The game will be decided on total aggregate score, with the "West" teams of Kearny, Lincoln, and San Diego meeting the "East" teams of La Jolla, Mission Bay, Hoover, and Point Loma.

Kearny will be matched against La Jolla, Lincoln will play both Mission Bay and Hoover in separate quarters, and San Diego will wind up against Point Loma.

Reserved seats ($1.50) are available now at each of the seven participating schools. General admission ($1.00) and children's tickets (50c) are available at junior and senior high schools, and at Marc's in Ocean Beach.

Pt. Loma Varsity Packs Plenty Of Power

After a week's practice, including four twice-a-day workouts, Point Loma High School's varsity football squad of about 60 boys is shaping up into a potentially powerful outfit for the coming campaign.

Coach Bennie Edens has nine lettermen from last year's team. His first-string lineup looks adequate on both offense and defense, and his split-T running attack is geared to grind out consistent yardage.

Capt. Jerry Booth, 192-pound quarterback, is an experienced hand and is being counted upon to make the team go. However, they lack a passer to match last year's Bill Harvey.

Key personnel includes the following:

Centers—Richard Hall, 188; Joe Varley, 194; Bob Trembley, 199; Wally Kellogg, 181; and Allen Ellwood, about 170, from Minnesota.

Guards—Joe Welch, 196; Leigh Coppock, 208; Frank Almond, 184;

Joe Langlais, 150, and George Cheatham, 180.

Tackles—Nick Verduco, 202; Fred Azevedo, 181; Vernon Eppley, 210; Manuel Rebelo, 181; Chuck Klein, 188; Ned Smith, 180; Roland Dowell, 178, and Don Ransom, 194.

Ends—Doug Stephenson, 178; Roger Sneed, 160; Fred Gomes, 170; Jim Lunsford, 153; John Jenkins, 165; Dick Drasil, 160; Ted Faris, 156, and Paul Stoltz.

Quarterbacks — Jerry Booth,

192; Roger Soares, 166; Doug Minton, 152, and Ray Hermans, 150.

Halfbacks—Phil Meyer, 145; Charles Moses, 149; Frank Asaf, 141; Lalo Gonzalez, 148; Tony Danise, 169; Skip Downey, 149; Daryl McPheeters, 150; Fernando Quaresma, 150; Bill Kelley, 155; Willie Dickey, 147; Tony Silva, 150; Jerry Goehring, 145, and Billy Moilanen, 143.

Fullbacks—Bill Bradford, 197; Jay Jensen, 188; Jim Allin, 182; and Joel Hoerger, 163.

Final Qualifying Round In Yellow Derby To End Sat.

Except for the final fishoff, which is slated for Sept. 22, the 10th annual $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby will be wrapped with the mothballs Saturday night when the third and final qualifying round will come to a close, but the season's best fishing appears to be just beginning. Yellowtail catches at the Coronado Islands, which had been above average for 10 days, suddenly skyrocketed last Saturday and only a few fish more would have boosted the total over the 800 mark, the highest catch since the record haul of 1916 made last June 7th.

As the final week of qualifying began, minimum weight rested at the 23 pound 8 ounce level and such intense action was expected to take it higher.

In addition to the hottest yellowtail fishing of the summer, marlin also cut loose and daily catches ranged from a half dozen to 13 with more catches of the higher figure than the lower.

One of the marlin highlights of the week was the bagging of a 263 pounder on light tackle in 28 minutes by Mrs. S. Howard Minor Jr. Another was the boating of three fish in one day by the Ya-Hee—a 140½ pounder by Mrs. Minor, a 177 pounder on medium tackle by Howard Minor, and a 150 pounder on medium by Lynn Willardson.

J. D. Vose, 4654 Pescadero Dr., still is pacing the Point Loma-Ocean Beach area anglers with his 28-5 bluefin tuna, and is certain of his bid to the finals of the derby Sept. 22.

Dana Junior High School Announces 16 New Teachers; Enrollment 1850

Approximately 643 seventh graders and 16 new teachers became a part of Dana Junior High this week. Enrollment of about 1850 students necessitated a faculty increase from 65 to 71. Transfers and retirements meant ten replacement teachers.

Eight men and eight women are new staff members. Mrs. Bertha Wetzel from Hawaii and formerly a teacher at the San Diego Junior College and Vocational School, replaced Mrs. Betty Blair as the typing teacher. Earle Brucker, physical education, replaced Tom Dahms who will again play with the Green Bay Packers.

Mrs. Margaret Schaefer, UCLA, was assigned the physical education classes formerly taught by Miss Sheelagh Hanna who married during the summer and moved to Long Beach. Miss Nancy Coutechie came from Marston Junior High to take charge of Joe Lewis's art classes as he is now at Lincoln Senior High. Glen Eaves from Mississippi replaced Ed McKinney, who resigned to take a technical position at Convair.

Miss Genevieve Marshall, UCLA, has the home economics classes of Miss Carol Milsten, who transferred to Hoover Senior High. Miss Louise Abendroth, University of Wisconsin, replaced Raymond Kosiba who is studying this year at Miami University, Ohio, for a master's degree. Mrs.

Julia Kunkel began her retirement last June, and Mrs. Barbara Wassner from University of Missouri now has her mathematics classes.

Mission Bay High gained James Randall for its English department and Dana gained Miss Nancy Uitsch from the University of Wisconsin. Melvin Rising left to teach in Colorado and Joseph Nierodzinski, San Diego State, now teaches woodshop and drafting in his place.

Five men and one woman fill the six new teaching positions. Cecil Krebs from Michigan is teaching social studies, mathematics and English. George MacLachlan was transferred from Pacific Beach Junior High to teach English and social studies, and Charles Lusk from Minnesota has the woodshop classes of Mr. Cameron Sellar who is now the counselor for the seventh grade.

To the math department Richard Brewer has been added. In addition to teaching mathematics, music and art, David McNair will direct the Dana Boys Chorus this year. Teaching English and social studies will be the contribution of Mrs. Anne Walker who transferred from Gompers Junior High.

The custom of the Dana PTA serving luncheon for the faculty was again observed when Mrs. Dinko Kovacevich, president, led her members last Thursday in this activity.

HEARD AND LIKED

"Make me a better parent. Teach me to understand my children, to listen patiently to what they have to say, and answer all their questions kindly."

Keep me from interrupting them, talking back to them and courteous to them as I would courteous to them as I would have them be to me.

Give me the courage to confess my sins against my children and to ask of them forgiveness when I know that I have done them wrong. So guide me hour by hour that I may demonstrate by all I say and do that honesty produces happiness.

Reduce, I pray, the meanness in me. Blind me to the little errors of my children, and help me to see the good things they do. Give me a ready word for honest praise.

Allow me not to rob them of the opportunity to wait upon themselves, to think, to choose and to make decisions.

Make me so fair and just, so considerate and companionable to my children that they will have a genuine esteem for me. Give me calm and poise and self-control.—A prayer by Garry

Cleveland Myers.

Proposition Four Chairmen Named

A fighting ex-marine general and a prominent attorney will spearhead the San Diego County drive for the passage of Proposition 4—the oil conservation act—on the state ballot at the Nov. 6 election, it was announced this week.

They are Lt. Gen. Leo D. Hermlie, USMC, (ret.) and James W. Archer, a member of the San Diego law firm of Gray, Cary Ames & Frye.

Their acceptance of the co-chairmanship of the San Diego County Citizens' Conservation Committee was announced in Los Angeles by Dan A. Kimball and Edward L. Callahan, Southern California co-chairmen. Kimball was formerly Secretary of the Navy. Callahan is past president of the Los Angeles Real Estate Board.

"The purpose of Proposition 4 is to set up a three-man commission to enforce rules designed to end flagrant waste in oil production and thereby double the state's recoverable oil reserves," it was said.

The Citizens' Conservation Committee sponsoring the act says Proposition 4 means more jobs and job security; more wages for more people; will tend to keep gasoline prices down.

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

For long there has been attempts to sell American public on the idea of the bigger the business, the more efficient it is.

Yet, facts keep cropping up in some fields of business which indicate the bigger a business becomes, the less efficient it becomes.

A just released report comparing the 1955 operations, vs. 1954 of some of the nation's grocery chains throws some interesting light on this subject.

C. W. Harder

By and large the best profits were shown by chains with 50, or less units. The two giants in the industry, one with almost 2,000 units, the other with 4,000 units, showed the poorest profits.

One showed a profit of only 8/10ths of 1%, the same as the previous year; the other showed only 7/10ths of 1%, or a decline from the previous year.

Yet neither of these huge operations sell for any less than independent competition that is efficiently operated. In fact, on standard brand merchandise, independents are often lower.

Periodically, there arises a drive to pass laws to outlaw chains. The nationwide membership of the National Federation of Independent Business has never gone along with this approach, in belief it would be un-American to legislate against bigness just because of bigness.

But there is a definite feeling that without special concessions, or cumshaw, if you please, there is a point in size where profitable operations are no longer possible. It was not long ago when the Justice Dept. in court procedure established that the biggest of them all showed in one year profits of more than a million dollars derived entirely from so-called "cooperative allowances" wrung out of suppliers, but never expended. Many food sales managers, privately, will talk about concessions they are forced to make to big chains to keep their goods in those stores.

It is possible huge chains could survive without special concessions. On the other hand, there is a great mass of informed opinion that holds that if the present anti-trust laws were to be fully enforced, many huge operations would have to trim down to efficient size.

But until such time as the anti-trust laws are fully enforced, it will never be definitely determined which belief is right.

Congress at times has shown great impatience with the ineptitude of the Federal Trade Commission in enforcing the anti-trust laws. On the other hand, FTC, as well as the anti-trust division of the Justice Dept. have claimed that Congress does not appropriate sufficient funds for a complete job to be done.

There could be some merit to this stand. After all, nobody can build a complete house without more tools than a screwdriver.

It would perhaps cost many millions to provide the tools for an effective, intensive job of anti-trust violation investigation at the grass roots level.

But millions upon millions of dollars dished out to Communist Tito's Yugoslavia have proved nothing, except that in a showdown Tito is a dyed in the wool communist. Obviously, money spent seeking means of maintaining a free and above board economy in America would be of more benefit to American taxpayers than bolstering the communist rule in Yugoslavia.

In the enjoyment of outdoor sports, hunters and fishermen spent during 1955 nearly 87 million dollars. The National Automobile Club reports this money was spent for all types of hunting and fishing licenses, permits, tags, trout stamps and federal duck stamps.

Forty per cent of the pedestrians killed by motor vehicles in the United States during 1955 were killed while crossing between intersections, points out the National Automobile Club. Be safe. Cross only at intersections or in properly marked crosswalks.

Secrets of a Model

I've always had a secret urge to model something glamorous and custom made for me. But I do most of my modeling in a household appliance, demonstrating household appliances.

Hank said today's job was an exciting one. I doubted it. "After all," I told my photographer-husband, "appliances are pretty standard."

Now I know why. This afternoon I discovered a range can be just as individual as a Dior creation. I posed with an RCA Whirlpool built-in oven—installed to fit my height. When a girl's as tall as I am, baking usually means bending. But this new oven is designed for "stand-up" use. The controls are at eye-level too!

Between pictures, I examined the oven clock control that starts and stops cooking automatically at the times you select. I had visions of putting dinner in the oven before we left for a job—and coming home to a piping-hot, ready to eat meal.

One of the Whirlpool-Seeger executives who was on the set told me that the oven and the separate surface cooking unit are available in both gas and electric models. He said they are finished in stainless steel, antique copper or white porcelain enamel. He added that the units can be installed almost anywhere a housewife wants them. Then he nudged Hank. Said a model housewife like me really deserved a model kitchen. But Hank was already sold. "Bet you could cook a meal for 30 men in that oven," he murmured. "Maybe I could, but I'll start with a small roast for two."

Stand up in a boat to cast and fish can see you from a much greater distance, warns the National Automobile Club. Learn to cast sitting down and you'll catch more fish.

Radiological Monitoring Class Set

Enrollees in a new civil defense class on Radiological Monitoring will have an opportunity to learn the varied effects of atomic radiation and the use of Geiger counters, ion chambers and portable radio equipment.

First session will be held Monday, September 24 at 7 p.m. in the San Diego Evening High School, 12th and Russ Sts. Instructors are Edward P. Joyce, local CD Medical Coordinator, and Eugene A. Souigny, San Diego City Schools Visual Aids.

Joyce said that the course, while interesting, is not difficult for the average person. No special education beyond high school is required.

Radiological Monitoring became, with the advent of the hydrogen bomb, one of the most vital of all civil defense services. The lives of many thousands will depend upon the detection, measurement and communication of radiological intensities, Joyce said.

The new instruction course includes 12 class sessions and a 6-hour field exercise. Interested citizens may receive further information by calling the City Office of Civil Defense, GL-4-0191.

Subjects to be covered include nuclear weapons and their effects, atomic structure, maximum permissible exposure to atomic radiation, methods of decontamination and the fallout prediction program.

Graduates of the course will have an opportunity to be assigned to radiological trailers to be stationed at strategic locations on the outer limits of the community. The size of the class is limited so prospective students are urged to enroll at once.

Hunters Advised To Warn Wives Of Duck Season

Less than six weeks remain before the opening gun is fired in the 1956 waterfowl shooting season in San Diego County, Harvey Chambers, chairman of the San Diego Ducks Unlimited committee, advised local hunters to warn their wives today.

California is not splitting its season this year, but will take a full 80 consecutive days beginning October 20 and ending January 7, Chambers said. Fall flight prospects are reported good in all flyways, according to DU technicians in Canada. Water conditions existing in southern California will determine hunting success locally.

Bag limits for ducks remain at seven, but 10 birds may be taken if three are widgeon or sprig. Only one Canada goose is permitted, and Ross's Goose is on the protected list. Black Brant season will run from December 1 to February 10.

Chambers suggested that all city and county sportsmen and their families get into the spirit of the coming waterfowl season by attending the 13th annual Ducks Unlimited party in the new Palm Room of the U.S. Grant Hotel on October 9. Tickets, available from any DU committeeman, include free cocktails, a deluxe dinner, wildlife movies and other special entertainment, complimentary drawing for valuable prizes donated by local firms, and an annual membership in Ducks Unlimited.

Proceeds from such parties, open to the public, are sent to Canada to help restore waterfowl breeding areas, Chambers said.

HEALTH FOR ALL

"A DILLAR, A DOLLAR"

... a ten o'clock scholar
What makes you come so soon?
You used to come at ten o'clock.

And now you come at noon.
In the nursery rhyme book, this gem of poetry was illustrated with a picture of a small boy dragging his books in the dust as he reluctantly took the path to school.

Tardiness is, no doubt, a great trial to Teacher. But it is of equal or more concern to parents. It can be a symptom of serious trouble. With some children, it probably means no more than an undeveloped time sense.

A little boy stops to watch the activity in an ant hill. He truly has no idea of the length of time he stares in fascination. But with others, like the lad in the nursery rhyme book, tardiness undoubtedly means reluctance. They don't want to go to school. Why?

Most children like to go to school. If they are reluctant, there is usually a good reason—something that prevents them from enjoying school, from working and playing with other children their age.

More often than you'd think, the trouble is physical. The child can't hear or see well enough. Or he tires quickly. He probably doesn't know what's the matter and can't describe it.

But parents can and should make sure that Junior is in good physical shape before he starts off to school. Be sure that he has a thorough physical examination including hearing and sight checks. If the doctor says glasses are necessary, see that he wears them. A substantial breakfast—but one not so heavy as to make him dull—should start the day. "Early to bed" should end the day.

With basic good health, Junior should trot off to school eagerly and take part happily and successfully in the day's routine. If he still has trouble, it's time to look for possible emotional problems. Teacher will be glad to sit down and try to discover the trouble with you.

Cheney Says S. D. Needs V. A. Office

George Cheney, Democratic nominee for Congress in the 30th District, has pledged support to Mayor Charles C. Dail's efforts to obtain restoration of a Veterans Administration regional office in San Diego.

Mayor Dail in a letter to John S. Patterson, deputy administrator of veterans' affairs, recalled that the V. A. indicated a year ago when it consolidated the San Diego office with Los Angeles that it would review the action after a year's trial.

Said Cheney in a letter to Mayor Dail, a copy of which was sent to Patterson:

"I sincerely commend you on your efforts to bring about a restoration of the Veterans Administration regional office in San Diego. 'Whatever savings may have accrued to the Federal Government as a result of this consolidation—and I believe such savings have not in fact materialized—they most certainly would be offset by the hundreds of thousands of dollars which San Diego veterans have been forced to spend in unnecessary travel between San Diego and Los Angeles.

"An area of more than a million people such as the Southern Counties which the San Diego office served, simply has too many veterans and veterans problems to be served efficiently, economically or fairly by an already overburdened office in Los Angeles.

RICE PICNIC SALAD

The secret to making this thoroughly delicious rice salad is to begin with hot rice. The hot rice absorbs the flavors of the other ingredients to make this a salad that will be the highlight of any meal.

3 cups hot cooked rice
1/4 cup French dressing
1/4 cup minced onions
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup minced celery
1/4 cup minced green pepper

1/4 cup minced sour pickles
1/4 cup sweet relish
2 tablespoons minced pimiento
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1/2 cup mayonnaise

Combine rice, French dressing, onions, salt, and pepper. Let stand while preparing remaining ingredients.

Add celery, green pepper, sour pickles, sweet relish, pimiento, eggs, and mayonnaise; toss lightly. Chill thoroughly.

Yields six servings.

PictSweet Leads In Frozen Foods

"There are many reasons for PictSweet's leading position in the national frozen foods field," it was pointed out this week.

First of course, is the premium quality, resulting from complete control over every step in growing, picking and packing.

From the ground up, this quality is insured by use of vast, fertile fields with ideal growing conditions, costly, complex equipment, care in harvesting at prime maturity and big, modern, high-capacity plants, clean as a model kitchen, located where the crops grow to luscious perfection.

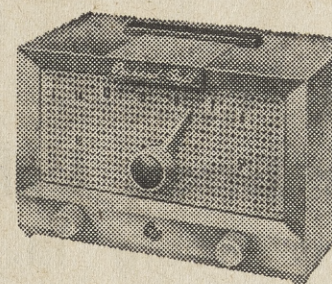

Furthermore, PictSweet packs a complete line of frozen foods. Housewives can select any food they want and be sure of its uniform, premium quality all year around—as long as the package carries the PictSweet label. Some of the most popular foods; all bearing the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval, are mixed vegetables, golden sweet corn, green peas, strawberries, peaches, concentrated lemonade, orange juice, French fried potatoes and many, many others—practically any frozen food you can name.
